1. Sub-section (2) of section 1 shall be omitted.
2. For section 2, the following section shall be substituted, namely :—
 “2. This Act extends to the whole of the State of Bhopal.”
3. In section 4, for the words “State Government” where they occur for the first time, the words “Chief Commissioner” shall be substituted and the words from “or, in a State” to “subject to the control of the State Government” shall be omitted.

Annexure

The Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XXII of 1884), as modified.

THE AGRICULTURISTS' LOANS ACT, 1884

ACT No. XII OF 1884.

An Act to amend and provide for the extension of the Northern India Takkavi Act, 1879

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Northern India Takkavi Act, 1879 (X of 1879), and provide for its extension to any part of British India;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. Short title.—(1) This Act may be called the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884; and

2. Local extent.—(1) This Act extends to the whole of the State of Bhopal.

3. (Repeal of Act X of 1879, and sections 4 and 5 of Act XV of 1880). Repeal by the Repealing Act, 1938 (I of 1938), s. 2 and Sch.

4. Power for Provincial Government to make rules.—(1) The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, make rules as to loans to be made to owners and occupiers of arable land, for the relief of distress, the payment of existing debt, the purchase of seed or cattle, or any other purpose not specified in the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), but connected with agricultural and fruit growing objects including the purchase of rights in agricultural lands.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Official Gazette.

5. Recovery of loans.—Every loan made in accordance with such rules, all interest (if any) chargeable thereon, and costs (if any) incurred in making or recovering the same, shall, when they become due, be recoverable from the person to whom the loan was made, or from any person who has become surety for the repayment thereof, as if they were arrears of land-revenue or costs incurred in recovering the same due by the person to whom the loan was made or by his surety.

6. Liability of joint borrowers as among themselves.—When a loan is made under this Act to the members of a village community or to any other persons on such terms that all of them are jointly and severally bound to the Government for the payment of the whole amount payable in respect thereof, and a statement showing the portion of that amount which as among themselves each is bound to contribute is entered upon the order granting the loan and is signed, marked, or sealed by each of them or his agent duly authorized in this behalf and by the officer making the order, that statement shall be conclusive evidence of the portion of that amount which as among themselves each of those persons is bound to contribute.

S.R.O. 964.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Part C States (Laws) Act, 1950 (XXX of 1950), the Central Government hereby extends to the State of Bhopal, the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), as at present in force in the State of Uttar Pradesh, subject to the following modifications namely :—

Modifications

1. Throughout the Act for the words "State Government" wherever they occur the words "Chief Commissioner" shall be substituted.

2. For sub-section (2) of section 1, the following sub-section shall be substituted :—

"(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Bhopal".

3. Section 2 shall be omitted.

4. In section 3 the words "or the Deputy Commissioner" shall be omitted.

Annexure

The Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), as modified.

THE LAND IMPROVEMENT LOANS ACT, 1883.

ACT No. XIX OF 1883.

[12th October, 1883.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to loans of money by the Government for agricultural improvements.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to loans of money by the Government for agricultural improvements ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. Short title.—(1) This Act may be called the Land Improvement Loans Act 1883.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Bhopal.

3. "Collector" defined.—In this Act, "Collector" means the Collector of land-revenue of a district, or any officer empowered by the Chief Commissioner by name or by virtue of his office to discharge the functions of a Collector under this Act.

4. Purposes for which loans may be granted under this Act.—(1) Subject to such rules as may be made under section 10, loans may be granted under this Act, by such officer as may, from time to time, be empowered in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner, for the purpose of making any improvement, to any person having a right to make that improvement, or, with the consent of that person, to any other person.

(2) "Improvement" means any work which adds to the letting value of land and includes the following, namely :—

(a) the construction of wells, tanks and other works for the storage, supply or distribution of water for the purposes of agriculture, or for the use of men and cattle employed in agriculture ;

(b) the preparation of land for irrigation ;

(c) the drainage, reclamation from rivers or other waters, or protection from floods or from erosion or other damage by water, of land used for agricultural purposes of waste-land which is culturable ;

(d) the reclamation, clearance, enclosure or permanent improvement of land for agricultural purposes ;

(e) the renewal or reconstruction of any of the foregoing works, or alterations therein or additions thereto ; and

(f) such other works as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time, by notification in the (Official Gazette), declare to be improvements for

4. Mode of dealing with applications for loans.—(1) When an application for a loan is made under this Act, the officer to whom the application is made may, if it is, in his opinion, expedient that public notice be given of the application, publish a notice, in such manner as the Chief Commissioner may, from time to time direct, calling upon all persons objecting to the loan to appear before him at a time and place fixed therein and submit their objections.

(2) The officer shall consider every objection submitted under sub-section (1), and make an order in writing either admitting or overruling it :

Provided that, when the question raised by an objection is, in the opinion of the officer, one of such a nature that it cannot be satisfactorily decided except by a Civil Court, he shall postpone his proceedings on the application until the question has been so decided.

5. Period for repayment of loans.—(1) Every loan granted under this Act shall be made repayable by instalments (in the form of an annuity or otherwise), within such period from the date of the actual advance of the loan, or, when the loan is advanced in instalments, from the date of the advance of the last instalment actually paid as may, from time to time, be fixed by the rules made under this Act.

(2) The period fixed as aforesaid shall not ordinarily exceed thirty-five years.

(3) The Chief Commissioner in making the rules fixing the period, shall, in considering whether the period should extend to thirty-five years, or whether it should extend beyond thirty-five years, have regard to the durability of the work for the purpose of which the loan is granted, and to the expediency of the cost of the work being paid by the generation of persons who will immediately benefit by the work.

6. Recovery of loans.—(1) Subject to such rules as may be made under section 10, all loans granted under this Act, all interest (if any) chargeable thereon, and costs (if any) incurred in making the same, shall, when they become due, be recoverable by the Collector in all or any of the following modes, namely :—

- (a) from the borrower—as if they were arrears of land revenue due by him;
- (b) from his surety (if any)—as if they were arrears of land-revenue due by him ;
- (c) out of the land for the benefit of which the loan has been granted—as if they were arrears of land revenue due in respect of that land
- (d) out of the property comprised in the collateral security (if any)—according to the procedure for the realization of land-revenue by the sale of immoveable property other than the land on which that revenue is due :

Provided that no proceeding in respect of any land under clause (c) shall affect any interest in that land which existed before the date of the order granting the loan, other than the interest of the borrower, and of mortgagees of, or persons having charges on, that interest, and, where the loan is granted under section 4 with the consent of another person, the interest of that person, and of mortgagees of, or persons having charges on, that interest.

(2) When any sum due on account of any such loan, interest or costs is paid to the Collector by a surety or an owner of property comprised in any collateral security, or is recovered under sub-section (1) by the Collector from a surety or out of any such property, the Collector shall, on the application of the surety or the owner of that property (as the case may be), recover that sum on his behalf from the borrower, or out of the land for the benefit of which the loan has been granted, in manner provided by sub-section (1).

(3) It shall be in the discretion of a Collector acting under this section to determine the order in which he will resort to the various modes of recovery permitted by it.

7. Order granting loan conclusive on certain points.—A written order under the hand of an officer empowered to make loans under this Act granting a loan to, or with the consent of, a person mentioned therein, for the purpose of carrying out a work described therein, for the benefit of land specified therein shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence—

- (a) that the work described is an improvement within the meaning of this Act;
- (b) that the person mentioned had at the date of the order a right to make such an improvement; and
- (c) that the improvement is one benefiting the land specified.

8. Liability of joint borrowers as among themselves.—When a loan is made under this Act to the members of a village-community or to any other persons on such terms that all of them are jointly and severally bound to the Government for the payment of the whole amount payable in respect thereof, and a statement showing the portion of that amount which as among themselves each is bound to contribute is entered upon the order granting the loan and is signed by each of them and by the officer making the order, that statement shall be conclusive evidence of the portion of that amount which as among themselves each of those persons is bound to contribute.

9. Power to make rules.—The Chief Commissioner may, from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules consistent with this Act to provide for the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the manner of making applications for loans;
- (b) the officers by whom loans may be granted;
- (c) the manner of conducting inquiries relative to applications for loans and the powers to be exercised by officers conducting those inquiries
- (d) the nature of the security to be taken for the due application and repayment of the money, the rate of interest at which, and the conditions under which, loans may be granted, and the manner and time of granting loans;
- (e) the inspection of works for which loans have been granted;
- (f) the instalments by which, and the mode in which, loans, the interest to be charged on them and the costs incurred in the making thereof shall be paid;
- (g) the manner of keeping and auditing the accounts of the expenditure of loans and of the payments made in respect of the same; and
- (h) all other matters pertaining to the working of the Act.

10. Exemption of improvements from assessment to land-revenue.—When land is improved with the aid of a loan granted under this Act, the increase in value derived from the improvement shall not be taken into account in revising the assessment of land-revenue on the land:

Provided as follows:

- (1) where the improvement consists of the reclamation of waste-land, or of the irrigation of land assessed at unirrigated rates, the increase may be so taken into account after the expiration of such period as may be fixed by rules to be framed by the Chief Commissioner;

- (2) nothing in this section shall entitle any person to call in question any assessment of land-revenue otherwise than as it might have been called in question if this Act had not been passed.

11. Certain powers of Chief Commissioner to be exercisable by Board of Revenue or Financial Commissioner.—The powers conferred on a Chief Commissioner by sections (4) (1), 5 (1), and 10 may, in a province for which there is a Board of Revenue or a Financial Commissioner, be exercised in the like manner and subject to the like conditions by such Board of Financial Commissioner, as the case may be: Provided that rules made by a Board of Revenue or Financial Commissioner shall be subject to the control of the Chief Commissioner.

ANNEXURE

The Punjab Tenants (Security or Tenure) Act, 1950, as modified by the Ministry of states Notification No. 144-P Dated, the 26th June 1951.

ACT No. XXII OF 1950

An Act to provide for the security of tenure to tenants.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title, commencement, extent and application.—(1) This Act may be called the Punjab Tenants (Security of Tenure) Act, 1950.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

(3) It shall extend to the whole of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

(4) It shall apply to the entire land held in Himachal Pradesh by a landowner, except—

(i) the land held by an occupancy tenant;

(ii) the land reserved under the provisions of this Act; or

(iii) if such land, excluding the land held by an occupancy tenant, in aggregate area, does not exceed the permissible limit.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context,—

(1) "landowner" means a person defined as such in the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887, (XVII of 1887) as applied to Himachal Pradesh, and shall include an

"allottee" and "lessee" as defined in clauses (b) and (c) respectively of section 2 of the East Punjab Displaced Persons (Land Resettlement) Act, 1949 (XXXVI of 1949).

(2) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made by the Chief Commissioner under this Act,

(3) "permissible limit" means 250 bighas in accordance with the standards of measurement in force in the districts of Mandi, Sirmur and Mahasu and 50 acres in Chamba District, of land other than land occupied by any occupancy tenant;

Explanation.—For the purpose of ascertaining the permissible limit, it is immaterial whether land is entered in the record of rights in the name of landowner as an individual or as a shareholder in a joint holding, so long as the Area which he is entitled to hold can be ascertained of the basis of the record aforesaid;

(4) "standard acre" is a measure of area convertible, with reference to the quantity of yield and quality of soil, into ordinary acre of any class of land, according to the prescribed scale;

(5) "tenant" has the meaning assigned to it in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, (XVI of 1887), as applied to Himachal Pradesh, but does not include—

(i) a person having a right of occupancy;

(ii) a person who holds land for a fixed term of not less than 4 years under a contract or a decree or an order of competent authority while such contract, decree or order is in force; and

(iii) a "present holder" as defined in section 2 of the East Punjab Displaced Persons (Land Resettlement) Act, 1949 (XXXVI of 1949);

(6) "year" means agricultural year as defined in section 4 of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 (XVI of 1887), as applied to Himachal Pradesh;

(7) "land" and other terms used and not defined in this Act shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 (XVI of 1887) as applied to Himachal Pradesh, or the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887) as applied to Himachal Pradesh.

3. Reservation of land.—(1) Any landowner who has land in excess of the permissible limit may select for self-cultivation, out of his entire land in the State of Himachal Pradesh held by him as landowner, any parcel or parcels not exceeding, in aggregate area, the permissible limit and reserve it by intimating his selection in the prescribed form and manner to the patwari of the estate in which the land reserved is situate or to such other authority as may be prescribed.

Provided that in making this selection, he shall include, to the extent of the permissible limit, whatever self-cultivated land he has in his possession.

(2) Where in respect of any land more than one person can be classed as landowners, as in the case of persons one of whom is a landowner in principal and the other in a derivative capacity, the aforesaid right of reservation shall be exercised by the landowner who receives or is entitled to receive rent directly from the tenant in actual cultivation of the land.

(3) The right to reserve shall cease if it is not exercised within a year from the date of commencement of this Act; and no selection intimated under sub-section (1) shall be varied subsequently or the right to reserve be exercised subsequent to the commencement of the tenancy, whether by act of parties or by operation of law, save with the consent in writing of the tenant affected by such variation or until such time as the right to eject such tenant otherwise accrues under the provisions of this Act.

(4) If the landlord who has made his reservation under sub-section (1) fails, without sufficient cause, to bring the land under self-cultivation within one year from the date of intimation, the ejected tenant, if any, shall, on application, be 1429 restored to possession of the land on the same terms and conditions on which it was held by him at the time of ejectment.

4. Restrictions pending reservation.—Where the whole or any portion of the land intended to be reserved under section 3 is under a tenant, such tenant shall not, save in accordance with or under the provisions of this Act, be ejected therefrom until the land owner intimates to the patwari or the prescribed authority the reservation by him of such land. Provided that no such tenant shall be ejected except in accordance with the provisions of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, as applied to Himachal Pradesh.

5. Minimum period of tenancy.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 as applied to Himachal Pradesh or in any law for the time being in force, and except as provided in section 6, no tenancy in respect of any land shall be for a period less than four years.

(2) Such period in the case of a tenant already in possession and not liable to ejectment, or to whom possession is restored under section 14, shall, in the first instance, commence from the 16th June 1950.

6. Exceptions.—Nothing contained in section 5 shall apply in the cases of tenant—

- (i) who fails to pay rent regularly without sufficient cause ; or
- (ii) who is in arrear of rent at the commencement of this Act and does not pay such arrear, as is legally recoverable, before the 15th August 1951 ; or
- (iii) who, where the rent is payable in kind, has failed or fails, without sufficient cause, to cultivate or arrange for cultivation of the land comprised in his tenancy in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate ; or
- (iv) who, after the 15th June, 1950, has used the land comprised in his tenancy in a manner which has rendered, or renders, if unfit for the purpose for which he holds it ; or
- (v) who, after the 15th June, 1950, sublets the holding or a part thereof without the consent in writing of the landowner ; or
- (vi) who refuses to execute a Kabuliyat in respect of land he desires to hold under the provisions of this Act, agreeing to pay rent at a rate settled between him and the landowner, or the customary rent prevalent in respect of such land in the Tehsil in which the land is situate.

Explanation.—For the purpose of clause (i), a tenant shall be deemed to pay or to have paid rent regularly—

- (a) where rent is payable in kind, if he pays it either at the thrashing floor or where, according to nature of the crop or custom of the locality it is payable on any other date ; or
- (b) where rent is payable in cash if he pays it on or before the date on which it falls due.

7. Amount of rent.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 XVI of 1887 as applied to Himachal Pradesh, the rent payable under the provisions of this Act shall be such as has been agreed to in writing between the landowner and the tenant and, in the absence of any such agreement, the customary rent prevalent in the Tehsil in which the land is situate.

8. Furnishing of receipts.—(1) Every landowner shall, on demand, give, or cause to be given, a valid receipt for the rent received by him or on his behalf.

(2) Any land owner who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

9. Holding over.—Where any tenant, has, at the expiration of the period of tenancy as specified in section 5, been allowed to hold over, his tenancy shall be deemed to have been renewed for a further period of four years commencing from the date of its expiration, on the same terms and conditions as were attached to the tenancy of which the period has expired.

10. Effect of transfer.—Subject to the provisions of sections 11 and 12 and save in the case of lands acquired under any law for the time being in force, every transfer or other disposition of land, whether by act or parties or by operation of law or by or in execution of a decree, unless duly completed or deemed to have been completed before the 1st May, 1950, shall be void and unenforceable in so far as it tends to reduce or has the effect of reducing the minimum period of tenancy here-in-before specified.

11. Saving of bona-fide sale.—Nothing contained in section 10 shall apply to a sale made, or intended to be made, in good faith; and any tenant of the land which is the subject matter of such sale shall, unless the unexpired period of his tenancy fixed by or under the provisions of this Act is accepted by the vendee, be liable to ejectment under the provisions of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 as applied to Himachal Pradesh, as if he were a tenant from year to year.

Provided that, where the tenant is not accepted by the vendee, the tenant shall, subject to the rights of other pre-emptors as provided in the Punjab Pre-emption Act, 1913, be entitled to pre-empt the sale in the manner prescribed therein, and Section 15 of the said Act shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

12. Alternative procedure in case of intended sale.—(1) Where, under the provisions of section 11, a landowner seeks to have his tenant ejected before the completion of a sale he may, at any time, intimate in writing to the Revenue Officer, within whose jurisdiction the land is situated and who is competent to order ejectment of the tenant, his intention to sell, giving full particulars of the land, the name of the intending purchaser, the price offered and a copy of the agreement to sell.

(2) The intimation referred to in sub-section (1) shall, subject to the proviso to section 11 aforesaid, be treated as an application for ejectment and disposed of accordingly.

(3) Where the landowner who has secured ejectment of a tenant for the purpose mentioned in sub-section (1) fails to get the sale completed by the 15th of August following the date of ejectment, he shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees per 5 bighas of land in accordance with the standards of measurement in force in the Districts of Mandi, Sirmur and Mahasu and per acre in Chamba District from which the tenant has been ejected.

(4) The Court shall, when passing sentence of fine under sub-section (3), order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be paid as compensation to the tenant so ejected.

(5) Notwithstanding the receipt by a tenant of any compensation payable under sub-section (4), the tenant shall be entitled to retain for the unexpired portion of his tenancy possession of—

- (i) Where the vendee owned more than 125 bighas of land in accordance with the standard of measurement in force in the Districts of Mandi, Sirmur and Mahasu or 25 acres of land in Chamba District, prior to such sale the entire area sold;
